

COOK

Harrison & Hetherington is part of the H&H Group of companies and is the leading livestock marketing centre in the UK.

At our Borderway Mart, Rosehill, Carlisle we have an on-site café which provides breakfasts and lunches to mart customers as well as refreshments and snacks to visitors and employees throughout the day.

We are looking for a Cook to join our busy catering team.

The role will include:

- the preparation of hot and cold meals, in accordance with pre-set menus
- catering for on and off site events as required
- assisting with the cleaning and storage of all crockery and equipment, and ensuring that the overall cleaning of the kitchen and dining areas is carried out effectively.
- assisting with menu planning in line with demand levels and budgets
- monitoring stock levels and liaising with the Catering Manager to ensure value for money
- maintaining current knowledge of Health, Safety and Food Hygiene to ensure the highest levels of service
- assisting when required in the restaurant

The successful applicant will:

- Have experience of cooking and preparing meals in busy catering establishments
- Have good communication skills
- Be flexible and self-motivated
- Be able to work quickly under pressure whilst remaining calm and polite in all circumstances
- Have an understanding of health and safety regulations relating to a catering establishment

To apply please complete a job application form together with a full CV and letter of application to Margaret Irving, Borderway Mart, Rosehill, Carlisle CA1 2RS enclosing CV or download one from the website at www.hhgroupplc.co.uk

Closing date for applications 14th January 2022